

Privacy Policy

Last Updated on June 29, 2020

We value your ("User," "You," or "Your") privacy and recognize the sensitivity of your personal information. We are committed to protecting your personal information and using it only as appropriate to provide you with the best possible service, products, and opportunities, as described in this Privacy Policy.

This Privacy Policy explains the online information practices of JRA Creative Media, LLC (collectively, "Company," "JRA Creative Media" "we," "us," or "our") which hosts the website of www.trackassess.com and the mobile application Track and Assess (collectively, the "Application"). We think it is important to explain what information We collect, what We do with it and to describe the rights you will have with respect to the data.

Please note that when using the Application, this Privacy Policy should be read in conjunction with our Terms of Use. By accessing the Application, you acknowledge that the Privacy Policy and the Terms of Use govern your use of the Application.

The controller of your personal information is JRA Creative Media, LLC. The Company may provide products and services through its affiliated companies such as Netsmartz, LLC. The affiliate acts as a Data Controller with respect to personal information processed, used, and stored as a part of services and activities conducted by the JRA Creative Media, LLC affiliate. Certain services and activities may be conducted by several JRA Creative Media, LLC affiliates.

Privacy and personal data protection principles vary from one country to another. When you access or visit a third party website or application, you are subject to the privacy policy of that website or application. Please read the third party's privacy policy to determine the privacy practices that apply to information or data maintained by the website or application.

I. What Information We Collect and How It Is Used

We may collect and hold personal information related to you that is necessary for the purpose of conducting our business, including (without limitation) to deliver products, services or information, improve our services to offer better experience, and to fulfill our regulatory obligations. We will tell you when we ask for your information whether it is a statutory or contractual requirement to give us the information and the consequences of not providing the information.

To undertake above goals, we may collect the following personal information related to our users:

California residents may request certain information about our disclosure of personal data during the prior calendar year to third parties for their direct marketing purposes. We do not share your personal data with third parties or corporate affiliates for their direct marketing purposes.

VI. Security

We maintain security standards and procedures designed to prevent unauthorized access to your data by anyone, including our staff. We use commercially reasonable means such as (but not limited to) data encryption, firewalls, and server authentication to protect the security of your personal information. The Company and our staff and any third parties hired to provide support services will be required to observe our privacy standards and to allow us to audit them for compliance.

However, no information security defenses are impenetrable, and we cannot guarantee the security of our applications, servers or databases, nor can we guarantee that information you supply will not be intercepted while being transmitted to us over the Internet.

VII. International Audience

The Application is hosted in the United States. Therefore, personal information collected from you, including via the Application, will be transferred to the United States. Such transfer may not provide a similar level of protection to that provided by countries in foreign jurisdictions. As discussed above, we have a legitimate interest in utilizing service providers in the United States to provide you with the services.

Please do not use the Application if you do not agree to the transfer and processing of your personal information in the United States or if it is illegal to do so in your home country.

VIII. Children's Privacy

We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under the age of 16, and in the event that we learn that a child under the age of 16 has provided information on the Application, we will delete that information as soon as possible.

IX. Changes

This Privacy Policy sets out our current policies and demonstrates our commitment to your privacy. We may change the content or services found on the Application at any time, and consequently our Privacy Policy may change at any time in the future and will be updated from time to time. Whenever we make changes to this Privacy Policy that are important for you to know about, we will post the updated Privacy Policy at this link.

X. Your Queries

If you have any queries regarding privacy issues or if you wish to exercise your data rights as described above, email us or visit any of our branches for more information. To ensure that we carry out your instructions accurately, to help us continually improve our service and in the interests of security, we may monitor and/or record your telephone calls with us.
